CHIEF SECRETARIAT

MEMO.

No. P. 8361—P.P. 12-35-4, dated 19th June 1936.

The following notice is published for the information of candidates.

By Order,

A. V. RAMANATHAN, <sup>2</sup>
Chief Secretary to Government.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION (INDIA).

NOTICE.

A competitive examination will be held on Wednesday, the 16th September, 1936, to fill vacancies which are expected to occur for appointments as Typists and Routine Grade clerks in the Ministerial Establishment of the Government of India Secretariat and Attached Offices and as Civilian clerks in the Lower Division of the Army and Royal Air Force Headquarters Section of the Indian Army Corps of Clerks during the period from the 1st April 1937 to the 31st March, 1938, and such vacancies occurring before the 1st April, 1937, as cannot be filled from the Public Service Commission's general list, as regards open vacancies, or from their list for minority communities as regards posts reserved for those communities, on the results of the examination held in December, 1935.

Vacancies will be filled in accordance with the instructions in the Home Department Resolution No. F. 14/17-B./33-Ests., dated the 4th July, 1934.

It is expected that there will be twelve vacancies to be filled by lady candidates.

NOTE.—It has been decided by the Government of India that the employment of lady clerks in offices of Army Headquarters will be restricted to unmarried ladies and widows, who will be required to resign their respective appointments on marriage or re-marriage, as the case may be.

2. (a) Candidates will be placed in the order of their merit in the examination and will be offered posts as vacancies occur. (b) Posts reserved for candidates of a particular community will be offered to candidates of that community in order of merit.

Provided that in each case the Public Service Commission are satisfied that the candidate is suitable for employment in the Ministerial Establishment of the Government of India.

Conditions applicable to the examination.

3. Applications to appear at the examination must be made on the prescribed form and sent to the Public Service Commission, together with all the necessary documents, not

The fact that an application form has been supplied, on whatever date, will not be accepted as an excuse for the late submission of an application. Candidates who delay their requests for forms until a late date will do so at their own risk.

4. The fee for the examination will be Rs. 15, to be paid on application, in accordance with clause (e) (i) of the instructions on the application form. No claim for a refund of this fee will be entertained.

5. The examination will be held at the following centres:—

Allahabad, Bombay, Calcutta, Delhi, Lahore, Madras and Simla.

6. The Public Service Commission may, if they think it desirable, fix a minimum standard to be attained in all or any of the subjects of the examination.

7. Candidates must have been born not earlier than the 1st April, 1913 and not later than the 1st April, 1920:

Provided that lady candidates who were born not earlier than 1st April, 1909 and not later than the 1st April, 1921, will be eligible for admission to the examination. Lady candidates admitted under this proviso will be eligible for appointment only to offices in the Army Headquarters, and not to Civil Offices, on the results of the examination.

The age limits prescribed cannot be relaxed.

8. Candidates must not have appeared at two previous examinations, whether competitive or qualifying, conducted by the Public Service Commission since 1930 for Typist and Routine Clerks in the Ministerial Establishment of the Government of India.

9. (a) Candidates must have passed the Matriculation Examination of a University incorporated by an Act of the Central or a Provincial Legislature in India, or the Mysore, or the Osmania University, or an examination accepted by any such University as equivalent to a Matriculation Examination for the purpose of admission to a University course; or must have passed the Cambridge Junior Local Examination, or any other examination which may be recognised by the Public Service Commission as equivalent thereto.

NOTE.—The following examinations are at present recognised for this purpose:—

(1) The Middle School Examination for European Schools.

(2) The Higher Grade Schools' Final Examination of the Bengal Education Department."

(b) Candidates must satisfy the Public Service Commission that they are proficient in typewriting.

10. Candidates must be of good character and must furnish such proof as the Public Service Commission may require that they are suitable in all respects for appointment to the public service.

11. (a) Candidates who are already in Government service are not debarred from competing at the examination, provided that they fulfil all the conditions mentioned in this section, but no person who has been nominated to a permanent vacancy or a vacancy expected to become permanent on the results of a previous examination for recruitment to the Typist and Routine Grade will be eligible for admission. No concession in the matter of either age or educational qualifications is admissible to any candidates. Application from candidates in Government service whether employed in a permanent or temporary capacity must be submitted through the Head of the Department or office concerned.

11. (b) Candidates nominated to permanent vacancies or vacancies expected to become permanent, on the results of the 1935 examination for the Typist and Routine Grade subsequent to their admission to the 1936 examination, will not be renominated on the results of the latter.

12. The subjects of examination, the time allowed for, and the maximum marks allotted to each subject will be as follows:—

(a) Arithmetic.—Time one hour, Marks 100.

The questions will be designed to test intelligence, accuracy and rapidity in working.

(b) Handwriting.—Time 20 minutes, Marks 100.

Candidates will be required to copy a passage printed in English. Marks will be awarded for accuracy, legibility, neatness and speed. If a candidate is unable to copy the whole of the passage marks will be deducted in proportion to the shortage.

No candidate who secures less than 40 per cent of the total mark in this subject will be considered eligible for appointment.

(c) General Knowledge.—Time one hour, Marks 150.

Candidates will be required to give brief answers to questions concerning current events, common phenomena and matters of everyday interest or common knowledge.

(d) English Composition.—Time 2 hours, Marks 200.
